

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

Matters of General Interest Gathered by Our Reporters.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL ITEMS

What Has Happened and What Is Going to Happen Told in Short Paragraphs So That "He Who Runs May Read" It in The Sun.

Get a meal ticket at Rutherford's Restaurant.

N. Francisco left yesterday for a flying visit to Jacksonville.

Moving pictures—Electric Theatre. Ten cents. New every day.

Pat Odell of Micanopy was visiting the county capital yesterday.

Vernon Chitty of Micanopy visited relatives in the city yesterday.

If you want to leave a pension to your family see Geo. P. Morris.

Special attention paid to the ladies' trade at Rutherford's Restaurant.

R. D. Medlin left yesterday for Jacksonville, where he goes on business.

Plank's Chill Tonic is guaranteed to cure chills, fever, colds and lagrippe. Price 25 cents.

Mrs. J. H. Prator of Micanopy paid the city a visit on Tuesday on a shopping expedition.

The last arrangement made by the Electric Theatre furnishes grander pictures than ever.

Geo. R. Hotchkiss of Waldo was among the out-of-town citizens visiting the city Tuesday.

Mrs. Evins and two grandchildren of Evinston were among the shoppers visiting the city Tuesday.

New assortment and styles of wall paper constantly received. Call and get estimates. Chas. Glady.

Misses Annie and Martha Taylor of Rocky Point are in the city visiting friends for a few days.

The Commercial is a medium-rate hotel, with large, comfortable rooms. W. G. Richardson, Proprietor.

J. A. Bashaw left yesterday for Worthington Springs, where he proposes to spend the next few days.

The Gainesville National Bank has a new advertisement in today's paper to which your attention is invited.

J. B. Brooks departed yesterday for Jacksonville, where he goes on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Capt. A. Paul has returned from a business visit to Perry in the interest of the United States land office.

Marion Summers, member of the firm of Summers Bros., of High Springs, was among the visitors to the city yesterday.

Rev. J. S. Collier, pastor of the Bronson Methodist church and other churches in that circuit, was visiting friends in the city yesterday.

Mrs. J. L. Scarborough of Flemington arrived in the city yesterday and will spend several days as the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. T. Davies.

The handsome residence of W. R. Steckert is receiving an addition thereto and will be otherwise improved before the contemplated changes are completed.

C. L. Smith, an old employee of the Tampa and Jacksonville railroad, has resigned his position and accepted a similar one with the Seaboard. He left yesterday to take charge of a section at Baldwin.

S. E. Bauknight of Micanopy was in the city yesterday on business. He is one of the best men of a community noted for good citizenship, and always meets with a cordial reception from his friends in this city.

Dr. E. B. Howell, one of the prominent citizens of Newberry, was transacting business in the city yesterday. The damage to his building from a recent fire will be repaired at once and the building otherwise improved.

When You Set the Table

You will need a dinner set—decorative, yet durable. With our knowledge of china and other tableware, it's not a matter of surprise that we have just what you require. Our stock is ample enough to afford a wide range for choice—the price scale on the same generous basis. Need we say that you are welcome to examine at your leisure?

Saunders & Earle

Rutherford's Restaurant is at the postoffice corner.

See Geo. P. Morris and get his figures on the new pension policy.

Jas. Means of McIntosh, one of the prominent truckers of that section, was trading in the city yesterday.

C. C. Strickland, one of the most extensive planters of Hague, was transacting business in the city yesterday.

Mrs. H. L. Rosenberger and daughter of Kirkwood are in the city visiting Mrs. C. E. DeLand for a few days.

The Commercial House is now open under new management. W. G. Richardson promises you your money's worth.

J. B. Neal, a progressive citizen and extensive trucker of McIntosh, was transacting business in the city yesterday.

Amusing pictures are a specialty in the afternoons at the Electric Theatre, so that the younger children may enjoy them.

Col. B. A. Thrasher left yesterday for a professional visit to Jacksonville, where he will be absent for the next two days.

J. W. English, one of the successful planters of Clyatt's Station, was renewing his many Gainesville acquaintances yesterday.

Mrs. J. W. Brown, who has been visiting friends at Green Cove Springs for the past few days, returned to her home in this city yesterday.

White Springs—Go and return Sunday, $2. Go Saturday, return Monday, $2.50. Tampa and Jacksonville Ry. Leave 5:45 a. m., 5:25 p. m.

"Monte Christo" and "The Cigar Box" took the people by storm Monday night at the Electric Theatre. But there are just as good every day.

Col. J. B. Dell has removed to his large and handsome two-story residence on South Roper avenue, recently vacated by R. D. Medlin and family.

W. J. McCormick, the Union street merchant, departed yesterday for Worthington Springs, where he will spend the next several days recuperating.

Mrs. Dr. T. C. Hunter of Hernando, Fla., arrived in the city yesterday and will be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. C. L. Smith, for the next week.

The subject for the prayer meeting tonight at the Methodist church will be "Gospel Conquest in China." The service begins at 7:45 o'clock, and all are cordially invited.

Mrs. C. J. Richards, who has been absent for the past few months visiting friends and relatives at Kirkwood, Ga., has returned to her home in this city, much to the delight of her numerous friends.

Monroe Venable of Archer was in the city yesterday. He says that about all their machinery has been placed and the veneering part of their plant will be running when the vegetable season opens up.

Wm. Hardee, manager for the Chase turpentine interests at Paradise, was trading in the city yesterday. It is his intention to shortly leave for Atlanta, where he will enter one of the medical colleges of that city.

Dr. E. H. Pound of Jacksonville is in the city visiting his mother and other relatives for a few days. The Doctor is an old Gainesville boy and the citizens generally will be pleased at the information that he is enjoying a lucrative dental practice in the State metropolis.

The Commercial is only one hundred yards from the square, on East Main street north. W. G. Richardson, Proprietor.

The Gainesville market is well supplied with a variety of choice fruits, and the dealers are enjoying a good trade in this line.

Miss Alice Cato of Alachua, who has been on a visit to her brother, B. W. Cato of Ahrens, Fla., was in the city yesterday en route to her home.

P. N. Geiger of Waldo visited relatives in the city yesterday. He is thinking of locating in this city and was here looking over the field from a business point.

Read change of advertisement of the East Florida Telephone Co. This line reaches nearly all interior points in East Florida, as well as many points in South Florida.

Wall papering and everything pertaining to the decorating line by practical and experienced men. Get our estimates at office on West Main street, North. Chas. Glady.

Mrs. A. H. Leonard has returned from Lake City, where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Shelton. The latter accompanied her home and will spend a few days here.

At a meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society held yesterday at the Methodist church, Mrs. H. L. Phifer was elected president, and Mrs. C. E. DeLand corresponding secretary.

"Susie, Mama says I can go to the carnival at Jacksonville some Saturday." "I had rather stay home and go often to the Electric Theatre for only ten cents. I'll have more fun and often instead of one time."

Col. J. M. Rivers and family have returned from a pleasant visit to relatives at Lake City. The Colonel has almost entirely recovered from his recent illness and will be in good shape for the coming term of the circuit court.

J. E. Wells, the efficient book-keeper for C. W. Bauknight at Archer, has been in the city for the past three days visiting his family and recuperating from a slight attack of fever. His friends were glad to see him on the streets yesterday.

T. F. Jennings of the Brown-Jennings Hardwood Company returned yesterday from Palatka, where he has been for the past few days on business. He says the company now have plenty of logs in transit and that the mill will be started up next Monday.

Rev. S. B. Rogers will preach to the good people of North Gainesville on Friday night. He has selected for his subject: "Shall We as Christians Keep Saturday or Sunday, Which and Why?" He especially requests that a large attendance greet him at this meeting from that enterprising suburb.

H. L. Owens has accepted the position as night policeman vice W. T. Zetrouer, resigned. Mr. Zetrouer made a vigilant officer and only his position of brick mason, which is far more remunerative, caused him to resign his position. Mr. Owens is a steady young man and will prove a valuable acquisition to the police force of the city.

The many friends of Dr. N. D. Phillips, who is now residing at Kirkwood, Ga., and whose health has been very poor for several years, will be pleased to learn that he is now enjoying much better health. Though still quite weak, he enjoys the company of friends and manifests great interest in Gainesville and the people of his former home.

Miss Florence Ballis, one of the efficient teachers in the Gainesville Graded and High School, has returned from an extended visit to relatives in New York. Her host of friends will be pleased to learn that she has been greatly benefited by her vacation, and returns with renewed vigor for her school work. Miss Ballis is one of the best instructors in the State and patrons of the High School are fortunate in the trustees having secured her services for another term.

Geo. L. Taylor of Palmer has returned from a visit to his old home in Findlay, Ohio. He also took in the G. A. R. reunion at Toledo, and reports a most pleasant and beneficial trip. He says the copies of The Industrial Edition of The Sun which were sent to Toledo "took like hot cakes," and much interest was manifested in Florida by those attending the reunion. Mr. Taylor says there will be an increased number of visitors to Florida from the West this winter.

THE GAINESVILLE NATIONAL BANK

GAINESVILLE, FLA.

Capital Stock $100,000.00

Facilities for any legitimate business. We want all the accounts we can get—large or small—and are willing to WORK for them, DIG for them, and SIT UP NIGHTS for them, if necessary.

COME TO SEE US

T. W. SHANDS, President

WM. R. STECKERT, Vice-President

C. A. FAIRCLOTH, Cashier

..WANTS.. A REMOVAL

and—THE REASON

5c

PER LINE

Each insertion, but no advertisement taken for less than 20 cents. Six words make a line; no fractional lines, every word over each six counting as an additional line. CASH in advance must accompany all orders for insertions in this column.

FOR RENT.

HOUSE FOR RENT. J. W. Vidal.

FOR SALE.

APPLES FOR SALE—By the barrel, in large or small lots. Address J. E. Hall, Box 247, Waynesville, N. C.

FOR SALE—Two cottages in South Gainesville; terms easy at reasonable interest if unable to pay all cash. Apply at Sun office.

FOR SALE—Corner lot 100x125 feet on West Main St. north and Boundary St., next to Jeff Kendrick. Will sell at a bargain and on easy terms. Apply at Sun office.

S. W. Rowley, one of the prominent real estate dealers and Republicans of Putnam county, was in the city yesterday conferring with Hon. H. S. Chubb of the Republican State Central Committee.

Capt. J. M. Dell is in receipt of a handsome large photograph of W. J. Bryan, which he prizes very highly. He enclosed a donation to the campaign fund and was the recipient of the souvenir, which was an unexpected present.

The weather has been of a rather threatening nature during the past few days, and while all danger of the West Indian hurricane has passed, it is not too late for the annual equinox. In fact, this is just what many are looking for with unusual severity this month.

Miss Tebeau's Boarding and Day School

OPENS MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1908

No. 300 West Main Street S.

GAINESVILLE, FLA.

THIRTY-FIFTH YEAR

First National Bank

GAINESVILLE, FLORIDA

Established Over Twenty Years

Capital, $100,000.00

Surplus, $50,000.00

UNITED STATES DEPOSITORY

....We Solicit Your Business....

Jas. M. Graham, Pres.

E. Baird, Vice-Pres.

H. E. Taylor, Cashier

Low Graham, Asst. Cash.

...N. FRANCISCO...

Only Exclusive Fruit Store in City ....

All Fruits in Season

Free delivery to any part of the city.

South Side Square

Phone 223